Principal's Message

The 1960's have been called the Space Age. It is a time of exciting changes, not only in the field of science but in the field of political development. New nations have developed and are making their voices heard in the United Nations. The 1960's will be a time of tremendous changes, uncertainties and tensions.

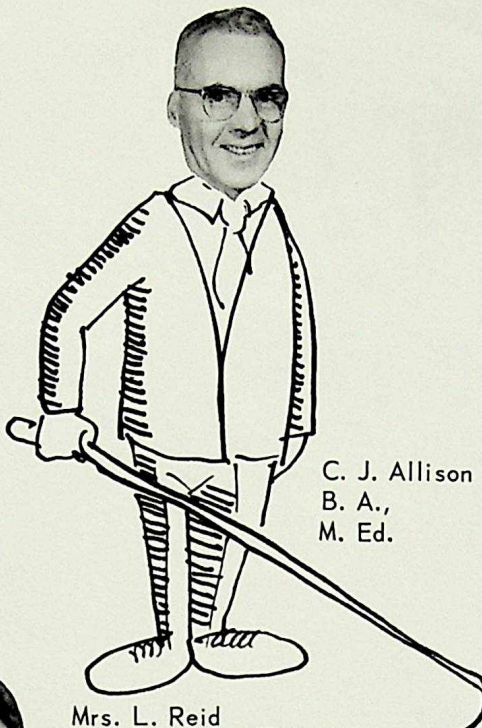

In this space age there is a greater need than ever before for educated people. It is therefore essential that we strive to educate ourselves to the full extent of our interests and capacities. There is a need for technicians and a need for stenographers. There is a need for professional trained people and a need for tradesmen. It does not matter what field we choose, but it does matter that we bring to our work enthusiasm and competence.

In this new age the old verities still are sound. Honesty, trustworthiness and dependability still hold true. The ability to get along with people because we understand them and appreciate them is still important. Good citizenship is vital in this new age. These values are learned not only in school but are nurtured in the family circle, stressed in the church and acted out in the community and in association with one's friends. To prepare you for the future is to do your best today!

"And they wrote and wrote and wrote and wrote and wrote.....".

This is indeed the story of your Yearbook staff. Everyone works at planning, writing, cramming, cutting, spacing, and more writing. Many hours are spent to make a yearbook a true masterpiece.

We, of the Elizabethan staff hope that you will find the Third Edition of the Elizabethan a book of the future and of the past. May all the future students look with pride at the pictures of those who have gone before. May the ones who remember working with us have plans to help with another Elizabethan. And may the ones who won't be back look forward to the best in the future and with fond memories on the past.

There were times we thought we wouldn't,
But we finally got it done;
It took a lot of effort,
But we had a lot of fun.

JIM NICKERSON

President's Message

"Heaven is not reached by a single bound;
We build a ladder from the ground."

Anon

Education is one of the rungs of this ladder. Our education at school is not solely in the classroom, however. There is much to be learned in extracurricular activities, clubs, intramural sports, and students' union. Association and co-operation with others is essential for the maturity of every student. Thus, it is the duty of the Students' Union to unify the students into one body with its own traditions.

This year there have been several problems, the foremost being the doubling of the student body to 1400. This, in itself, has had a tremendous impact on the activities of the school.

The number of clubs blossomed to 23, the intramural sports program was extended, and an assemblies board was set up to deal with increased social activities.

This growth has resulted in many successes. In the athletic field our football and basketball teams vastly improved. There has been good participation in school functions and excellent scholastic achievement.

I extend my appreciation to the Students' Union Executive and Council, Mr. Nicoll, Mr. Allison, Mr. Dale, and the administration for their work to make this a good and memorable year.

To the grade tens and elevens: May your future years at Queen E. bear all the fruits that a high school education can bring and may you continue to build well the new traditions of Queen Elizabeth Composite High.

To all Queen E. students, past, present, and future: May our motto be your guide,

"to the utmost of our ability."

Grad Class History

Our first year of high school, 1961-the year when we were new students in a new school. The students' Union elections were held in the fall and Ron Luxton was elected to guide our school through her infancy. Our school motto was chosen "Virili Parte" - "to the utmost of our ability" - and this has increased in its importance to us as the years have slipped by.

This was the year when our sports teams had to start with no leftover nuclei to depend upon. As a result we had no outstanding victories, with one great exception-the day when our football team trampled Scona 22-0!

The "Elizabethan Players Club" was formed which gave us four wonderful memories: "Fun in show Biz-from Good Queen Bess to Sweet Queen Liz"; "March Madness" featuring our teacher's Barber Shop quartet; "Our Town", the first year play which was such a success; and a session devoted to the plays of Gwen Pharis Ringwood.

On to 1962-the year when Dennis Foth was elected Students' Union President, and when our first constitution was drafted. Our hamper drive was successful and on the day before our Christmas exams the PPCLI band gave us a wonderful concert.

"Fallout Frolic" was, indeed, a frolic complete with Christmas trees and swinging satellites. At our spring dance we were provided with both a wishing well and fresh garden flowers.

The "Elizabethan Players" were active again and we had three "lits": "Back to the Kitchen, Woman", " 'Twas the Week before Xmas", and the staff's hilarious theatrical attempt. Then there was the year play "Arsenic and Old Lace" and who among us will ever forget the insane Brewsters, elderberry wine, and the combination of several assorted graves and the Panama Canal in one single basement?

Now we have arrived in 1963-the year when we are Seniors and give our greatest contributions to the school which we are soon to leave. Our genial leader has been Jim Nickerson, President of the Students' Union who has given Queen Elizabeth a sense of unity and wholeness which it has never had before because of its youth.

In sports we have seen a great advancement over the record of previous years. We were taken to Hawaii for our "Blue Seas" dance by shimmering water, palm trees, and one very special grass skirt. For St. Patrick's Day, "O'Shae' Shenanigans" proved we could honor the land of the shamrocks.

We far overshot our goal in the Xmas food hamper drive. We played host for the Interschool Clubs Conference. We won the Safeway trophy for our statues during the Muk-Luk Mardi Gras and we sent representatives to "Reach for the Top" and "Hi-Teens".

For entertainment we have laughed at a modern "Cinderella" story, and protested loudly as we saw our staff defeat (?) the Junior Knights. And we mustn't forget our last year play "Bernardine".

Now we have looked back in retrospect and have brought together some of our common memories. We have relived the past, and the time has come to prepare for the future.

It was the late Dr. Sidney Smith who said, "We will never arrive at our goal-we will never know all that we try to know-but in trying we will become what we could never otherwise have become, and the world will be a better place by virtue of our quest."

Respectfully,
Helen Millen

DON NAZIMEK

Valedictory

I consider it a great honor to have been chosen to present the valedictory on behalf of the graduating class of 1963.

We are gathered here tonight to mark the end of a very important phase of our lives--the end of our high school years. I am sure that we come with mixed emotions. We are proud of our completed twelve years of schooling; proud of our school Queen Elizabeth Composite High School, which we have come to love; proud of our teachers and friends, who have helped us forward and given us courage to face our studies, exams, and long classroom hours; and proud that we can now stand up and enter the adult world as young men and women. We are apprehensive--apprehensive as ships which must leave the shore and travel out into uncharted seas, not knowing in what cove we shall find shelter or on what reef we shall go down. Yet we must go trusting only the compass of education, which was placed in our minds and hearts. We are apprehensive of strange paths, unexpected trials, added responsibility, new acquaintances, failures, frustrations, and wrong decisions. We are sad--sad that we must bid a farewell--a farewell to a way of life, to twelve years of fellowship, planned routes and happy memories, and to teachers, friends, and fellow students. We are happy because we have achieved a pinnacle from which we can look back in retrospect on achievement, which will make our challenging future bright and rewarding. We realize that Queen Elizabeth has been good to us and we hope that our successors will find it likewise.

With these varied emotions we view our high school years. We remember exams, homework, lites, yearplays, dances, clubs, career days, award days, frosh days, football, basketball, student-teachers, and we are sorry to leave.

And what have all these years of work given to us? They have given us character gained through hard work, perserverance, and endurance. They have given us character tempered by adversity, encouraged by hope, and willing through an instilled sense of duty and patriotism.

Let us not forget in parting that it was not by our efforts alone that we obtained our learning. We are indebted to our parents who showed understanding and love and who imparted their share of effort for our endeavours. We are indebted to our teachers, who encouraged, prodded, taught, tested and put up with our shortcomings; to our friends for their sympathies and companionship and to our free democratic society, which provided our magnificent school system and the opportunity to learn. We thank them one and all.

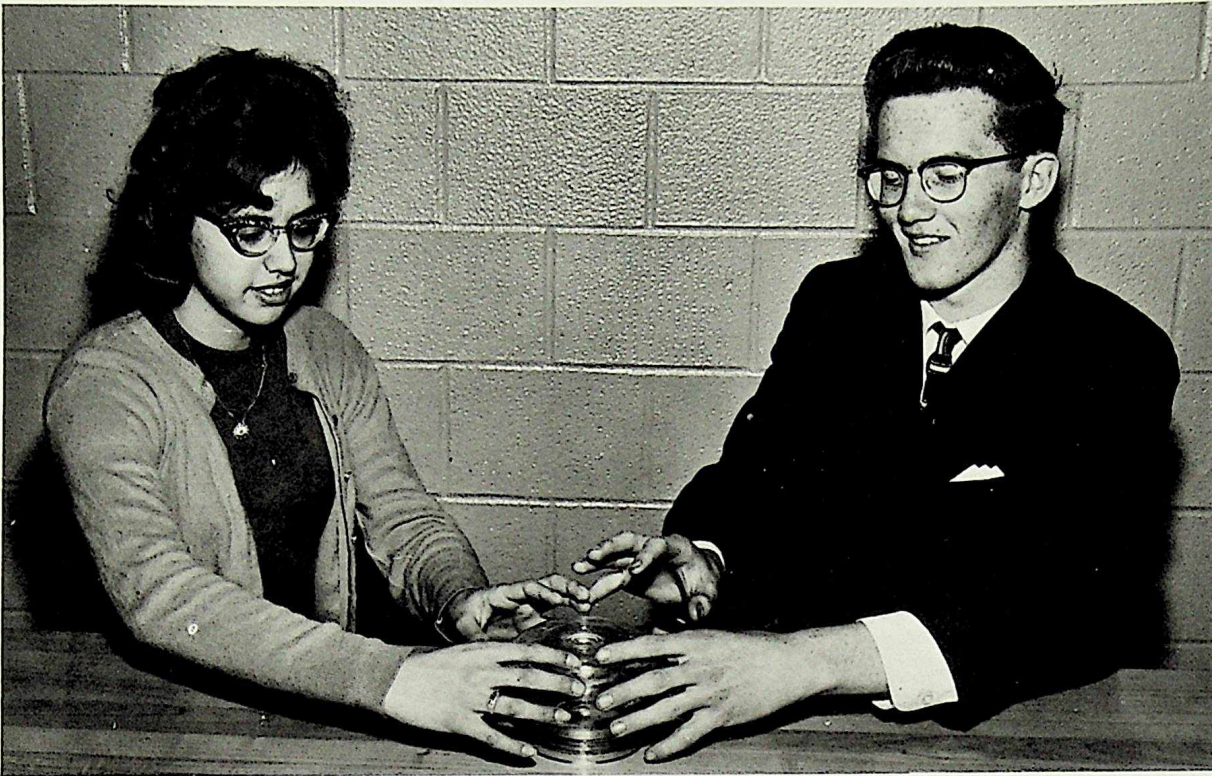

Graduands of 1963. We have worked hard, and our efforts will not go unrewarded. But we must realize that each achievement, like each inn, is only a point along the road. The real goodness of living comes with the journey itself, with the striving, and the desire to keep moving ahead. We must learn to take each inn along the way with a traveller's stride--not as a stopping point, but as a starting point for some higher and better endeavour.

To Conclude:

Whatever you are, be noble.
Whatever you do, do well.
Whatever you give, give kindly.
Give joy wherever you dwell.

To one and all, Fare Thee Well! and may God light your way.

Grad Prophecy

DIANE DOERKSEN AND ORVILLE SLEEN

As we gaze into our crystal ball, we notice a partially constructed building. Slowly the picture becomes clearer and we notice a placard in the foreground. Two names stand out; STEWART BRADY, architect and ROBERT HERRICK, Commercial artist. Two of the QUEEN ELIZABETH GRADUANDS of "63" have fulfilled their ambitions.

Suddenly, we realize the people working on the building are familiar to us. There is MICKEY CALLAHAN, TERRY SMITH lugging lumber. Various technicians at work are ERIC KEEVEL, IAN CAMPBELL, ED RUTLEY, and DAVID SIMPSON. Looking closer we also recognize KEN DIGWEED, HARVEY GINTHER, and DAVID GRAMS holding a mess of electronic gadgets and wires, wondering where they forgot to put them. Here comes more workers and among them are RANDY CHRAPKO, ROY GREGORWICH, ELDON BERGE, and EUGENE URICHUN.

Leaving them in their dilemma, our crystal ball shows us a little office connected to the building. Through the window we see PETER HARRIS at his drafting board with SHARON BATDORF hovering near him, ready to take any dictation. In the corner, typing are LOUISE BRUDER and KATHRYN MACMURDO. Putting some invoices away is LORRAINE FREEMAN. Right next to her sits FRED CATHCART, going over some figures (the mathematical kind). His secretary is ROBERTA PRICE.

Suddenly, a bulldozer blocks our view with MICHAEL COUTURE skillfully handling it. When it stops KEN LOOTEN and JIM NICKERSON appear before it. They are discussing engineer problems with DON NAZIMEK and BRYAN DOIDGE. Near them we see LEIGH GEMMELL supervising such men as BOB DUNCAN, DON HAWN, and IAN MAXFIELD.

This vision becomes hazy and a bright picture appears in our crystal ball. The building is now completed and we discern a modern hospital. Walking into the hospital are smartly dressed nurses: SHIRLEY DOOLAN, LYNN EGGENBERGER, DAWN HOWARD and LINDA MCLEAN. Entering behind them we notice SUSAN MOUNT as the receptionist. She is just coming off duty and MARTHA BOTHA is replacing her. Busily at work on the files are AALTJE WISSINK and LINDA MARKWART. In the office directly behind the receptionists desk, we see RANDY MULLER and LAWRENCE ROGALSKY engaged in their work.

Across the hall is a row of distinguished offices. From the name plates we recognize these: HITCHMAN and WILCOCK, chartered accountants; DIETER KLAUBERT, director of the Chemistry Dept.; GAIL WHITE, pharmacist; and DOREEN SNOWDEN, dietitian. As we gaze down the halls we see nurses EDDA TERNER and WYNONNA MACLAND. Our gaze is arrested by the office of DOCTOR TED CHERRETT. The door opens and inside LYNN EBERTS is busily typing. Waiting for the doctor are lab technicians, JOAN GREAVES and ELIZABETH DANIELSEN.

As we continue on our crystal ball journey we pass HELEN MILLEN, the famous humanitarian and KAREN KEARNEY, the well-known veterinarian. Walking with them is another great veterinarian STEPHEN RUSSELL. We also pass professor HARVEY WOO and world travellers TED CHABUN, MIKE KRAWCHUK and the author's name is PAT VOIGT.

But our attention is distracted from the passers-by as the X-ray door opens. Inside, in a state of bewilderment, is FAY HABKIRK, CAROLYN RIPLEY, and KERRY WALKER staring at an X-ray. Next to this room is the laboratory. Wearing stained lab coats, we can distinguish the faces of PAT COLLETT, MARILYN LOTOTSKY, SHARON TURNER, and FAY WITFORD. Just coming in is KEN BARKER.

Once again we are on our way and the busy lawyers, DAVID MELNYCHYN and his partner, HEATHER MILLS, pass with their secretaries DONNA CLARKE and DIANE BROADLEY. After they pass, an unmarked door comes into view. Slowly it opens. Into complicated machines BRUCE SMITH and WILLIAM ROBINSON are feeding medical information.

Suddenly we are transported upstairs. On the way we pass nurse MARGARET MIDWINTER directing R.C.M.P. PAUL STENNING to the waiting room. Here we are surprised to see a number of persons in uniform. Respresenting stewardesses are LINDA BOYARSKI, JOANNE CHORNEY and HILDA HARTMANN. We found out later, fellow stewardesses HEATHER YEATMAN AND FAYE WOTHERSPOON had caught the measles from one of their passengers. JUDY VRANCKAERT and DONALD GREIG look smart in their Navy uniforms. From the R.C.A.F. we recognize GORDON KEELEY, EILEEN MARKWART and LLOWYIN TITLEY.

As our crystal ball takes us away we see two more stewardesses: CAROL TRISKA and ROXANNA WOODMAN. We are now shown several private rooms. Inside we see such people as HANS BEBLO visiting ANNE MAZURYK, fellow member of the Dept. of External Affairs. In another room DEWEY MOWAT is bossing nurse SHELAGH WHITE around, but she's not taking any nonsense. Lawyer BRYAN FANCE, in the next room, is keeping his two secretaries PENNY ROCKCLIFF and GLORIA BOYCHUK busy with legal matters. Nurses LOTTE RASMUSSEN and DONNA REYNOLDS are caring for the mathematical genius BRUCE EDWARDS in room 139.

Just as we come out of room 139, a skirmish occurs in the hall. It seems a sick criminal had tried to escape. Who catches him, but police detective ROSS BERWICK and policeman GARY OWEN. After this brief excitement we stare into the nearest room. BILL WISPINSKI, the famous designer and JOAN GODSELL, fashion co-ordinator are visiting a convalescing actress.

Out in the hall again we pass FRED DUNN and BOB PATTERSON discussing calisthenics for the patients. Soon after we pass those multi-millionaires JOE DUROCHER and JACOB HUIBERS talking with the prosperous businessman HARVEY MILLS.

Near the hospital's classrooms we pass in the hall, WILLIAM BETTERIDGE, RICK BOOKHAM, and SHARON BUSBY. Looking through the glass window of the classroom, we see ROWENA HONEYCHURCH, KAREN HUBBARD, JOE HUMENIUK and JUDY KULMATYSKI. Teaching languages is MERITA KALLABIS and SYLVIA KOLSTAD. This is as bad as a teacher's convention.

Our crystal ball then transports us to the next floor. In the first room, Phys. Ed. instructors RUDOLF BERGHUYS, BOB BLACKWOOD, and ANNE KANE were explaining to BETTY YURECHUK how she went wrong doing a back-flip. Near this room is the children's playroom. Nurses CAREN THOMPSON, SUSAN BOWEN, and SANDI THOMPSON with their patients are being entertained by magician PETER KOLADICH. Just outside of the room is HELEN BOYCHUK and CATHY MACLEOD, the children's recreation directors.

In the waiting room, IAN CAMERON, PAT HIRST, ROSE LASCHUK, BARB GEMMELL, MARILYN MCCORMICK and PENNY SYMINGTON are comparing the different parts of the world from which they have just returned.

As we glance out the window we see TOM DOUGLAS and MICKEY DUBAK waiting in the latter's T-Bird for HARVEY STEIN and ED MARIANIX, traffic police to wave them on. SGT. BOB TACKABERRY is talking to TERRY TASKEY and GLEN CARLSON, professors at the U. of A.

Our crystal ball fogs, then clears to give us a view of BRIAN TAYLOR's dental assistant DARLENE LISKE calling oil tycoon IAN HOWELL, DAVE WRIGHT, HOWELL'S chief mechanic is talking to specialist MICHAEL SMITH about a new turbine engine. Also in the waiting room are ex-schoolmates MARG NIAWCHUK, STEPHANIE PAWLIUK and DIANE PENNER.

The P.A. system interrupts the silence of the hospital to page obstetric nurse JERRY NAUGHTON to advise social worker SANDY LESYK on the problem of child birth control in slum areas.

As our crystal ball fades we see forester DAVE SHEDDEN and IAN TITLEY talking to ROSE STACHNIAK and CAROLE SMITH switchboard operators. They want to place a call to their banker's secretary, MARIAN YEWCHUK.

Now our crystal ball has no picture. We have seen all the graduands of "63" and are happy to see that they are still living up to the Queen Elizabeth motto. VIRILI PARTE - to our utmost.

"Bernardine" is a two act comedy written by Mary Chase. Under the skillful direction of Mr. V. L. Sutton and Lesley Hennie, the Elizabethan Players presented a most enjoyable play.

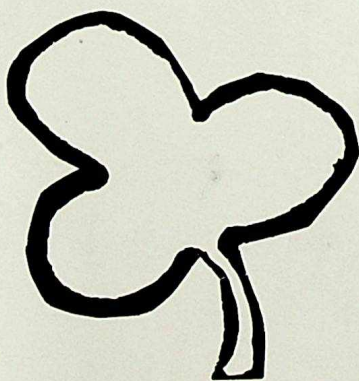

Blue Seas

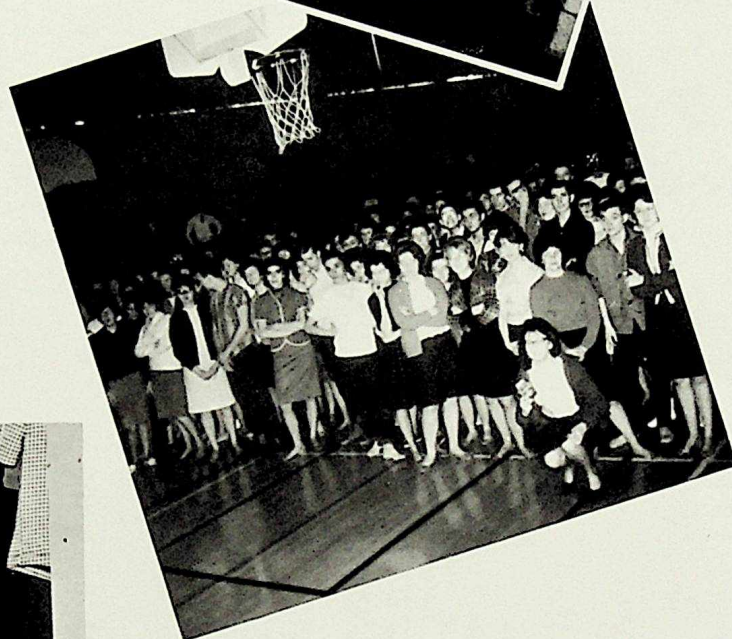

Though Edmonton was engulfed in a blanket of snow, Queen Elizabeth alone was in an atmosphere of hot sun, palm trees, and grass skirts as she presented her Blue Seas Dance. Reds, blues, and yellows greeted the eyes of the students as they danced to the smooth rythm of guitars, and an authentic Hawaiian outfitted in a grass skirt and bright colored leis, entertained all present.

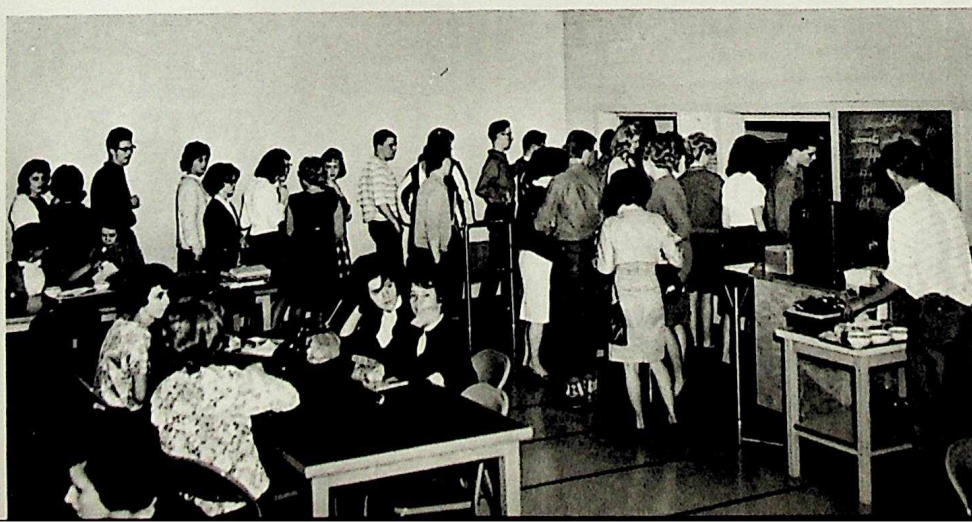

O'Shea's Shenanigans

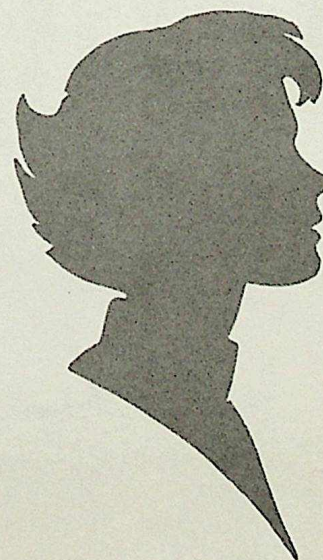

Ah! 'twas indeed the wearing of the green that created the atmosphere for the Shamrock Ball entitled "O'Shea's Shenanigans." The Irish could not have been more proud of their shamrocks, which were found scattered throughout the gym and even St. Patrick would have found delight in the music played by the Saratogas. It was a night to be remembered by all who attended.

Girls' Sports

VOLLEYBALL

Mrs. Shapka coached the Junior Girls to an exceptionally well played season. The girls began the series rather doubtfully but went on to win nine consecutive games. By the end of the season, they were in fourth position with ten wins, seven losses, and one tie.

Like the Juniors the Senior Girls finished in fourth place, but tied it with Strathcona and Eastglen. The team captains were selected with Sharin Adams the captain of the juniors and Judy Vranckhaert captain of the senior team. Under Mrs. Wasleyshyn, the girls displayed fine team spirit and co-operation. Congratulations to both teams and good luck to Queen Elizabeth's future volleyballers!

BASKETBALL

Under the successful direction of Miss Niblock, the juniors completed the season with a tie for second place. Beatrice Shedden was the team captain of the juniors, and Judy Vranckheart was the captain of the senior team. Once again Mrs. Shapka led the girls to a good showing of their ability and skill and at the end of the season, the girls were tied for third place. Good luck to future players.

Boys' Sports

CURLING

Queen Elizabeth's first curling team was coached by Mr. Strembitzky. Entitled the Queen Elizabeth Pete Tyler Rink, the team entered The Taylor, Pierson & Carsen trophy playoffs. They surrendered a 6-5 loss to Bonnie Doon's Wayne Saboe Rink. Considering it was Queen Elizabeth's first team in curling, the boys did exceptionally well.

SWIMMING

The Queen Elizabeth swim team, which was coached by Miss E. Davison and managed by Mr. P. Bell, won the Preliminary meet against Jasper Place and Bonnie Doon. The team finished fifth in the City finals.

FOOTBALL

Coached by Mr. Kingston and Mr. Sande, the Q.E. team placed fourth in the city league standings this year. Throughout the season there was a time of laughter-and seriousness. The boys handled themselves readily and maybe next year we can bring home the title of Queen Elizabeth's Football Champs! How about it boys?

BASKETBALL

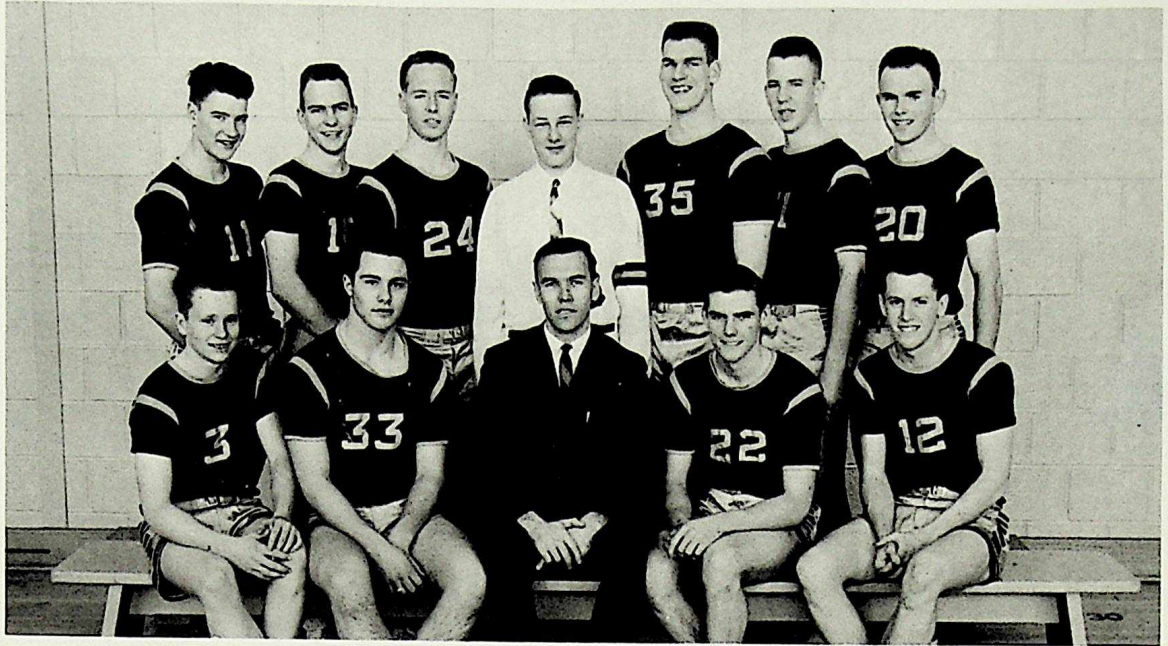

The Junior Boys proved to us what we all knew--that they were champs! This year they became victors and grand champions placing first in the league standings with twelve wins and two losses. Congratulations and keep up the fine play!

The Senior Boys played some hard and tough opponents and they finished in fourth position. By all means, keep up the fine display of team spirit and co-operation.

CROSS COUNTRY

Congratulations go out to Queen Elizabeth's cross country runners. They placed first in the City wide Cross country race to receive the place of honor. Once again, Congratulations.
